Re: Dreyfuss v. eTelecare Global Solutions, Inc.
Case No. 08-CV-1115 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

I write to seek clarification of your Order dated June 16, 2008. You have directed defendant to produce to plaintiff all arbitration agreements contained in defendant's active personnel files. However, plaintiff had requested only agreements entered into between 2002 and 2004, and those are the documents I had asked my client to obtain. I assume that that is all that need be produced. If additional documentation is necessary, we will need an extension of time because Mary Sculley is currently traveling in Asia on business.

Respectfully,

Andrew P. Marks (AM0361)

cc: Peter Jakab, Esq. (via Federal Express)

As discussed on the record during the June 16, 2008 conference
call, defendants
need only produce
agreements from
the relevant time
period, which is 2002
to 2004.
